

Equities: volatility and opportunities – Lemanik's strategy.

“The war in Iran and rising energy prices are forcing the Fed to exercise greater caution regarding interest rate cuts; however, the stock market remains promising, provided investors focus on companies with solid fundamentals,” says Filippo Garbarino, fund manager of the Lemanik Global Equity Opportunities fund at Lemanik Asset Management.

This is what emerges from the in-depth study by Filippo Garvarino, fund manager, published on Bluerating: https://urly.it/3_x90

Filippo Garbarino

More than 20 years of experience in the financial sector, with a particular focus on global equity markets. Filippo holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration from Georgetown University and a Master's degree in Finance from London Business School. He spent 10 years in Investment Banking (Corporate Finance and M&A) at leading international firms and another 10 years in the Asset Management industry.

His in-depth knowledge of global equity markets, with a particular focus on US equities, is the key strength demonstrated by his portfolio management.

Share This Article

View Filippo Garbarino profile